The Rules

Eligibility: The '5 Gets You 25' Summer Reading Program is open to rising 4th, 5th and 6th grade students who are 1) located in Prince Georges County, Maryland, USA, except where prohibited by law, 2) who are 8 to 11 years of age as of April 1 2010, and 3) have a parent, teacher or guardian of full legal age in the jurisdiction in which they live who will certify to the validity of their school and age eligibility.

Children of employees and directors of LUKE Foundation and all of its subsidiary or affiliate companies and each of their immediate family or members of their same households (whether related or not) are not eligible.

LUKE Foundation reserves the right to challenge the validity of any student's eligibility. By entering, you agree to these official Rules and the decisions of LUKE Foundation, which are final and binding in all respects. LUKE Foundation reserves the right to change any of the terms of these Rules at any time, and you agree to be bound by such changes. If you do not agree with these official Rules, do not sign-up.

Book Selections: Students are to select up to five (5) books from the Reading Lists as shown in the "The Reading" section of this website. The student must select a book that has not been previously read by the student. In the event that no such book is represented on this website, the student may submit a selection of up to five (5) books - noted by their title and author - of their choice. LUKE Foundation reserves the right to reject any submission.

Reporting Obligation: Each student must submit a 1.5 page, five-paragraph book report of each of the books read. The book report is required to include:

- 1st paragraph: 1) Name of the book, 2) Name of the author, 3) A list of all the characters, 4) where and when the story occurred.
- 2nd paragraph: Identify the major theme of the story.
- 3rd paragraph: Indicate your favorite part of the story and tell us why.
- 4th paragraph: Indicate who was your favorite character in the story and why.
- 5th paragraph: Indicate what you learned from the story.

Book reports may be typed or neatly handwritten. They may be submitted electronically or by US Postal mail. The mailing address and the form for electronic delivery will be made available to students who have been accepted into the program.

Program Duration, Deadlines and Limitations: The program's start date is June 15, 2010. The program's end date is August 15, 2010. The summer of 2010 commences the pilot launching of the '5 Gets You 25' Summer Reading Program. Only 500 students will be accepted into the program for the first season. Acceptance will be on a first come, first served basis. There is no deadline for entry; however, completed book reports must be submitted or postmarked no later than August 15, 2010 and no more than 500 students will be accepted into the program.

The small print: By submitting a book report (Content), parents and guardians, on behalf of the minor child, represent and warrant i) that the book has been read and the content of the report is an original product of the minor child and does not plagiarize, violate, or infringe the rights of any third party. You are solely responsible for complying with the laws of the jurisdiction in which you reside and that you indemnify, defend and hold LUKE Foundation harmless from, and against, any, and all, liability arising from your submission and/or participation in the program. By submitting Content, you grant to LUKE Foundation, its parents, subsidiaries and affiliates, a perpetual, irrevocable, royalty-free, non-exclusive, worldwide license to (i) electronically print, publish and distribute the Content in all versions and all media, now known or hereinafter created, including, without limitation, the right to translate and electronically publish and distribute the Content on the LUKE Foundation website; (ii) include the Content in advertising and promotion; (iii) include the Content in print and non-print products; and (iv) publish the child's name, and entry information in connection with the program.

Financials: Payments will be made within two (2) to six (6) weeks of the program's end date. Payments will be made by check, payable to the Student Reader, and mailed to the student's address as indicated in the original Sign-up form. The maximum payment to any individual student is $25.00.
